Prompts Used in the Class

1. We are compiling a comprehensive yet easy-to-understand guide about World War II for high school students.

2. Tell me about WW2.

3. In a detailed manner and structure, please summarize all you know about WW2.

4. Please summarize the main causes of World War II, the key events during the war, and its global aftermath.

5. What countries initiated WW2?

6. Which of these countries were the most vocal about WW2?

7. In a detailed and structured manner, please summarize how WW2 changed the way we live today.

8. And how did it impact the African continent? Include the most relevant events triggered by WW2 in the African continent.

9. Tell me about climate change.

10. What are some major causes of climate change?

11. Can you explain to me what photosynthesis is? (As a 5th-grade student)

12. Can you explain to me what photosynthesis is? (As a grad student)

13. Imagine I am Einstein. Can you explain to me what photosynthesis is?

14. Tell me a story.

15. How many sisters does Maya have?

16. What kingdom was Maya from?

17. Can you create a heartwarming story about a dog who helps a young boy regain his self-confidence?

18. Given the hypothesis that regular physical exercise improves mental health, can you provide arguments that support or contradict this?

19. Can you compare and contrast classical music and rock music in terms of their history, musical structure, and cultural impact?

20. Assuming we have established a colony on Mars, how would daily life on Mars be different from life on Earth?

21. Explain the concept of blockchain technology as you would to a computer scientist.

22. Explain the concept of blockchain technology as you would to a 10-year-old.